Subject: Observance of Police Commemoration Day (21st October), Police Flag Day, and Commemorative Events up to Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (31st October) – 2026.

Sir / Madam,

As you are aware, 'Police Commemoration Day' is observed on October 21st every year throughout the country to pay homage to all police personnel who have made the supreme sacrifice in the line of duty.

In accordance with the directives received from the Intelligence Bureau, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, and the decisions taken during the DGsP/IGsP Conference, all District Headquarters and Police Units are directed to observe the occasion with the utmost solemnity and undertake the following activities:

1. Ceremonial 'Smriti Parade' (21st October 2026):

A ceremonial 'Smriti Parade' shall be organized at all District Headquarters and Battalion Headquarters at 0800 hours on 21st October 2026. The Roll of Honour, containing the names of the police martyrs for the preceding twelve months, shall be read out during the parade to commemorate their sacrifices.

2. Observance of Police Flag Day (21st October 2026):

The day will also be observed as 'Police Flag Day'. Units may print Police Flag Day stickers locally at their end and distribute them among the personnel of their respective organizations and the public to honor the martyrs.

(Strict Directive: As per MHA instructions, NO FUNDS are to be raised or collected during the distribution of these stickers, as no notification for a Police Flag Day Fund has been issued).

3. Commemorative Events (21st to 31st October 2026):

To highlight the martyrdom of police personnel in service to the nation, a series of commemorative events must be organized in your respective jurisdictions from Police Commemoration Day (October 21) up to Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (October 31).

These events should be organized on the lines of previous years and may include:

- Honoring the families of police martyrs.
- Band displays playing patriotic/solemn tunes in prominent public places.

- Civic action programs, blood donation camps, and tree plantation drives.
- Awareness programs in schools and colleges regarding the role and sacrifices of the Police.
- Run for Unity (leading up to October 31st).

All SPs and Commandants are requested to take personal interest in ensuring these programs are organized meticulously. A brief report of the events conducted, along with high-resolution photographs, should be submitted to Police Headquarters (Attention: AIGP (Ops) by 5th November 2026 for onward compilation and submission to the Ministry of Home Affairs.

Receipt of this circular may be acknowledged.
